STORY GALLERY

Our team is working hard to create an impactful, and engaging virtual conference and we would love to secure your participation.

As you know, the topics are highly complex with many moving parts. This conference will bring together various experts and actors in the field aligning our efforts towards conserving our precious islands.

We want to hear from you!

We have an opportunity for you to submit stories, videos and photographs to our Story Gallery section of our website! We encourage you to use the link below and submit a story of your choosing to be presented to your peers in the industry.

PARTNERS

This conference would not be possible without the support of our conference sponsors and exhibitors. They are all a key part of our work and we consider them partners of the conference.

If you are interested in speaking about sponsorship or want to hear about the last few spaces available, please get in touch on this email address - pacificconference2020@sprep.org.
